He attended B.Y.U. for one and one-half years, also Pacific Coast Banking School in Seattle, Washington for two summers.

After serving an L.D.S. mission to Canada, he served in the navy, aboard an aircraft carrier as a radioman in the South Pacific area.

He married Maurine Christiansen February 17, 1944 in the Manti Temple after a high school romance.

Byron began working in the Commercial Bank of Utah in Payson, but was transferred to the bank in Heber City, the bank that became the First Security Bank in Heber in 1948.

They became members of the Heber Second Ward when they moved to the Gail Fisher home at 45 South and 200 West. Then later they built a beautiful home on the hill one-half mile north of Heber.

Byron was active in the Wasatch Chamber of Commerce as president and executive secretary for many years. He also served as stake Y.M.M.I.A. president and as a counselor to Bart Moulton in the Fifth Ward bishopric, and also as bishop there.

Maurine was born December 18, 1923. Her parents are Lee M. Christiansen and Pauline Marbell. She attended Santaquin and Payson schools and the Technical College, becoming a secretary at Midwest Pipe Company—later Geneva Steel.

She served as Primary President in both the Second and Fifth Wards, and as a teacher, counselor and Relief Society President in the Fifth Ward.

Byron had a life long hobby of raising game birds and water fowl and became president of the Utah State Pheasant Society. He also published a quarterly magazine and many books on the subject.

He was transferred to Spanish Fork Bank in 1974, where they built a new home and both he and Maurine continued their church activities.

Their children are all B.Y.U graduates. Douglas served a mission to Great Lakes and lives in Michigan where he is a bishop. He married Susan Nicholas. Kathryn lives in West Valley City and teaches school in Magna. Barbara and Jason Moulton live in Sterling, Virginia. David served a Japan Sendai Mission and is married to Susan Whittington. Diane married Gardell Johnson. She served her mission in London, England.

We have fourteen wonderful grandchildren.

Living in Heber we had some of the happiest years of our lives. We had excellent neighbors and enjoyed spending time with them and tending one another's children. We have so many special memories of the people we knew and the wonderful times we had while we lived there. To our children it will always be home.
